FACES ASSAULT CHARGE.

C. W. Bailey Brought Back From St. Louis for Trial.

Clande W. Bailey, indicted for assault with a deadly weapon in connection with a shooting affray on Pierce street about a year ago, was brought back from St. Louis last night by Detective B. W. Thompson.

While under arrest in St. Louis Bailey became despondent and attempted suicide. He knew that Bryant McMahon, one of the participants in the shooting, had been given a fifteen-year sentence, he said, and he felt that he would rather be dead than receive such a sentence.

The prisoner told Detective Thompprisoner told Detective Thomp-The prisoner told Detective Thompson that he took no part in the shooting. He feared, however, that he might be convicted because he was in company with those who did the shooting. Balley jumped his bond shortly before his case was called for Alice Hunt, charged with stealing clothing from a war worker, also was returned from St. Louis. She was brought back by Miss Sarah Tilghman, member of the woman's bureau of the police department.

INQUEST IN DROWNING.

Officials Find Two Deaths Resulted From Accident.

Sheriff Nicholson and Deputies Gingell and Boswell yesterday afternoon took the bodies of Miss Ruth Young and Miss Mary Coppinger, victims of the drowning accident in a canal feeder Thursday night, to Rockville. County authorities conducted an investiga-tion of the affair and concluded that the accident was unavoidable. The bodies of the young women were brought to this city last night and prepared for burial. Miss Coppinger's body will be taken to St. Louis, while that of Miss Young will be taken to Milwaukee.

TWO AIRPLANE RACES.

Two forthcoming transcontinental airplane races are announced by the Army air service. The first will be from New York to San Francisco, October 18 to November 20, and the second, the date for which has not been set, will be from New York to Los Angeles, some time during the first three months of 1921.

MOUNT RAINIER FETE.

Carnival Opens Tonight for Public

Funds.

The ninth annual carnival at Mount Rainier, Md., will open tonight and continue until September 11. Many new amusements have been added to the carnival. The money raised will be added to the fund to erect a town hall in memory of Prince Georges county soldiers who lost their lives in the war.

Until sufficient money for this purpose is obtained, however, the money is to be invested in road and sidewalk bonds, recently authorized by the Maryland legislature and passed by a referendum of Mount Rainier citizens.
